GOVERNOR DAVIS URGES ALL VIRGINIANS TO JOIN THE RED CROSS IN HIS ANNUAL PROCLAMATION.

COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA GOVERNOR'S OFFICE,

RICHMOND, OCTOBER 28, 1920. TO THE PEOPLE OF VIRGINIA:

During the period beginning ARMISTICE DAY, November 11, and ending November 24, 1920, the American Red Cross will conduct its FOURTH ANNUAL ROLL CALL for members. In order that the solendid work of the organization at home and abroad may be continued, it is absolutely necessary that the American Red Cross receive this year the fullest support of an present members, and that an increased enrollment be had for 1921.

I take pleasure, therefore, in urging all Red Cross members in Virginia to renew their annual membership in the American Red Cross for the ensuing year, and to exert every effort possible to secure new members. I hope that every Virginian will enroll as an active member of the American Red Cross for 1921, during the period November 11-24, 1920.
